DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statement filed 9/6/2005 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(1), which requires the following: (1) a list of all patents, publications, applications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office; (2) U.S. patents and U.S. patent application publications listed in a section separately from citations of other documents; (3) the application number of the application in which the information disclosure statement is being submitted on each page of the list; (4) a column that provides a blank space next to each document to be considered, for the examiner's initials; and (5) a heading that clearly indicates that the list is an information disclosure statement. The information disclosure statement has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered.

The listing of references in the Search Report is not considered to be an information disclosure statement (IDS) complying with 37 CFR 1.98. 37 CFR 1.98(a)(2) requires a legible copy of: (1) each foreign patent; (2) each publication or that portion which caused it to be listed; (3) for each cited pending U.S. application, the application specification including claims, and any drawing of the application, or that portion of the application which caused it to be listed including any claims directed to that portion, unless the cited pending U.S. application is stored in the Image File Wrapper (IFW) system; and (4) all other information, or that portion which caused it to be listed. In addition, each IDS must include a list of all patents, publications, applications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office (see 37 CFR 1.98(a)(1) and (b)).

and MPEP § 609.04(a), subsection I. states, "the list ... must be submitted on a separate paper." Therefore, the references cited in the Search Report have not been considered. Applicant is advised that the date of submission of any item of information or any missing element(s) will be the date of submission for purposes of determining compliance with the requirements based on the time of filing the IDS, including all "statement" requirements of 37 CFR 1.97(e). See MPEP § 609.05(a).

Reference EP 0904717, which was cited on a 1449 filed 3/10/2005, has been considered from the search report.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 4, 6-8 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Martin et al.

There is disclosed in Martin a cartridge support for a beverage maker, comprising: a bottom 78 forming a barrier for beverage liquid flowing from a supported cartridge; a discharge opening 79 in the bottom; a nozzle 80 restricting the discharge opening for generating a beverage liquid jet; and a plurality of cartridge support projections 81, including an innermost plurality of projections projecting from the bottom at positions circumferentially distributed around the discharge opening and having a cross section that is elongate in a radial direction with respect to the opening, the projections having straight wall portions facing each other and defining a passage therebetween.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2, 3 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Martin et al. in view of Cai.

Cai discloses support projections 94 which have an elongate cross section in a radial direction with respect to a discharge opening and have an innermost end and an outermost end, the innermost end being smaller in width than the outermost end.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to substitute the projections of Martin with those taught in Cai, in order to provide a radial passage between the projections. Allowing for better circulation and discharge of brewed beverage from the cartridge.

Claims 9-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Martin et al. in view of Weber.

Weber discloses a support device having a sloping bottom 213, a discharge opening 219 and flat portion 222 between the discharge opening and a ring of projections, the flat portion forming a sharp upstream separation edge from the bottom to the discharge opening.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to provide the bottom of Martin with the flat portion taught in Weber, in order to provide and even flow of brewed beverage from the discharge opening.

Claims 12 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Martin et al. in view of Kraan.

Kraan discloses a water heating and feeding system as well as a buffer reservoir positioned downstream of a nozzle.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to provide the device of Martin with the buffer reservoir taught in Kraan, in order to produce a foam layer to the brewed beverage.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The patents to Dijis and Peterson are cited for their disclosure of the state of the art.
